“ My deepest condolences over your loss. The Bible tells us: “Draw close to God, and he will draw close to you.” (James 4:8) The Bible makes this further comforting promise: “Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.” (Psalm 34:18) May these scriptures and God’s promise of resurrection hope gives you comfort during this time. “ I am sorry for your loss please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus promises of the earthly resurrection(:Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Our memories of our uncle are many. Some of his favorite sayings were “golly bum” or when he got ready to leave he was “shoving off.” He had a nickname for each one of us that we will remember always. When he came to visit us in the summers or holidays with our grandparents, he would take us to the store and we would each get a brown bag we could fill with all the candy we wanted. Whether our memories are of him taking us to our first indoor movie or to play arcade games or read our children stories or quiz us on Guinness facts, they are our special memories of our uncle who had a childlike quality and excitement that made our lives and childhood so special. We owe him so much for the love and care he gave our grandmother especially in her final years even when his health was failing him. He always told us he was proud of us, so today we want to say we are proud of you Uncle Charles, we love you and you will be in our heart and memories forever and always. We salute you.
