“ Cheri, we prayed for your healing, and now you are completely healed. I will always treasure memories of your laugh that was so contagious, your humor that keep us going when the going got tough, and our chats while riding to work and around town while getting ready for your wedding. Rest in peace my friend. Keeping your sweet Roy, mom, and the rest of your family in our prayers.

“ Harriet and I were saddened by the news of her passing last week. She was a work friend at Andersen and she and my neighbors' daughter carpooled with me for a few years. I drove a Jeep Wrangler during part of our carpooling time. During the summer the top was down as much as possible and you can imagine what our hair looked like when we arrived at the office. One day Steve Afshar, our independent courier, came to the mail room window and remarked to Cheri "what happened to you" referring to her hair. Cheri quickly said "that darn Jeep"! I also recall she always had nicknames for a lot of folks at the office. For example Henry Eyer was "Hen" and there were others as well.

She was a joyful person and always upbeat rarely in a bad mood. She was very focused on doing her best work each day and made everyone she came in contact feel at ease. She had an infectious laugh and a joy to be around.

*Rest in peace our friend,

“ Cheri Sims Johnson.

*As I look up to the skies above,
The stars stretch endlessly –
But somehow all those rays of light
Seem dimmer now to me.*

*As I watch the morning sun appear,
The shadows still don't fade —
As if the brightest light of all
Was somehow swept away.*

*Though I see the branches swaying,
And watch their dancing leaves –
The echoes carried on the wind
Don't sound the same to me.
As I listen to the morning birds
Sing softly from afar –
It seems to be a mournful tune
That echoes in my heart.*

*Another day has come again,
As time moves surely on –
But nothing now seems quite the same,
To know that she is gone.
The days and weeks and months ahead
Will never be the same –
Because a treasure beyond words
Can never be replaced.*

*The loss cannot be measured now,
The void cannot be filled –
And though someday the grief may fade,
Her mark will live on still.
For even with my heavy heart,
I know that I've been blessed
To have been one who's life he touched
With warmth so infinite.*

“ Cheri Sims Johnson, I can't believe your gone, God truly received a beautiful angel in heaven. You were A loving grandmother, wife, sister, aunt, daughter, and a friend to everyone, I know the Angel's wrapped their wings around you when you arrived, and that your grandparents were standing by your side. I love you and there isn't enough room on any page to list all the amazing things about you, what a wonderful person you were. I will always hold the memories of you close to my heart and cherish them forever ♥♥♥♥

“ So many memories... You helped me through so many things all five of us grandkids are so very grateful for you!! You always made sure we had what we needed!! You helped me pick out a beautiful formal dress, when you saw me in that dress you cried because you loved it and i just knew that was the dress i needed to get. And do not even get me started about that beautiful pup prince that was your baby, you spoiled that puppy so much and i know yall are together right now running around, he was like your child lol. You are one of a kind with a heart of gold.

“ Cheri Sims Johnson. Christmas is ur favorite time of the year. U always have a beautiful tree with 5000 ornaments lol. We always would say the tree is gonna fall thru the floor if u put n e more on it. Lol. U would say naw it could use a couple more. Lol. And ur christmas music. U played it all day everyday. My father and his last min shopping. We would just laugh at him. Lol. Hes so silly. But always came back with a new shoe. Cherished teddy and a stuffed teddy. Ur bag of cheetos and ur pistachios. And always that one special gift he would get u. We all always had to keep our bows lol. But hey not once sense i have been blessed to have u in my life sense i was 15 years old we have not had to buy xmas bows Making cookies and ur famous chex mix. The floor around the tree was covered in teddy bears. And the 100s of gifts for the kids. U spoil them every year. We gonna make sure ur tree gets put up for u with ur teddys. And ur stocking with ur big bag of cheetos. 😊 Christmas will never be the same. I love u. U will always be alive in my heart.
