“ Betty, may God comfort and hold you and your family especially close. Chet was a very special friend whose quick smile and playful wit always promised loads of fun. He and Hal sure liked to tease you and me! Of course, lots of laughs always followed which left us with sweet memories to cherish. Jonathan sends his sympathy, too. He thought a lot of Chet and always asked about him. Our prayers go up for you. Through Christ's love and sacrifice, we find our hope as His Word promises.
