“ It's incredibly difficult to know that tomorrow doesn't get your infectious laugh, and that so many people are going to go without your smile. It's hard to imagine that there are some people that will never get to know your amazing personality, but I know you touched so many lives already. There's never enough time in the world, but you did make incredible use of what you did have and there are so many people missing you right now and so many who will never forget you. We love you so much, Chris. Thank you for every memory, every conversation, and everything in between.

Chris what a bubbly young man you were. You brought laughter to so many, but most important you were so humble and appreciative, always wanting to do for others. You left an impact on this world! God made you so special for this world, to bring joy to others.
