“ My dad was the most loving dad to exist. He was always a parent first and friend second. He was my best friend, and will forever be my best friend. My dad was a jokester as most who know him already know. If he could get you to smile then his day was complete. He ALWAYS made Saturday breakfast because it was the one meal he couldn't burn. If I didn't wake up to the smell of bacon and eggs he would open my curtains and tickle my feet as a kid. He was the best dad I could have ever been blessed with. Not all heroes wear capes, mine wore a uniform and badge.

“ Family & Friends, we were deeply saddened for your loss, know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time of bereavement. May the Words of the Lord found in 1Thess 4:13-18 bring you needed comfort in the days ahead.

The Coming of the Lord

13 But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. 14 For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. 15 For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord,4 that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. 17 Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. 18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Sincerely,
