“ My mother was friends with “Aunt Cynthia” since they were both 9 years old and went to school together. Their friendship was one that lasted throughout their entire lives. They had a close and unbreakable bond. Even after they both married and had children, we all became one big, loving family. My sister and I called her “Aunt Cynthia” and her three sons call my mother “Aunt Nell.” I remember visiting them all the places they lived, and they always visited us. There are so many treasured memories with the Stills and the Joneses. Aunt Cynthia was a beautiful person, inside and out. She had a beautiful smile and an infectious laugh. She was a loving person and a dedicated nurse. Hers was a life well-lived and I feel blessed to have been a part of it. Deepest condolences to Jim, Jr., Tommy, and Andy, as well as her other family members and friends who loved her. She was a special lady and we loved her dearly.
