“ The first time I met Uncle Bud was when I was working for Hershey. I walked into KMart and there stood Uncle Bud with the sweetest smile on his face. I noticed his name tag and conversation broke out as I was a Woodall raised in Macon. I always looked forward to calling on that store so I could spend a little time with Uncle Bud. And then we started coming to the family reunions and he was one of the special ones I looked forward to see. He and Ann always made the sweetest couple. I will miss him.
