Mrs. Williams was a native of Kinatchie, Louisiana. She was the daughter of the late Charles Ashly and Ruthie Mae "Davies" Withers and was proceeded in death by her husband Joe W. Williams and her daughter Beverlee Ponder.

She is survived by daughters: Luci (Sebastian) Radice, Deide Bateman, both of Milledgeville, GA; sons, Richard Gary Jones of Southern California, Joe W. (Mary Ann Scarcella) Williams Jr., David (Bobbie) Williams, both of Cocoa, FLA.; grandchildren: Three sons of Gary Jones, Paul, Annarose, Mary, Woody, Marc, Joy, Chad, Jewel Lee, Shane, Cory, Caitlin, Sheila, Debra, David Jr, Todd, and Jessica: grandchildren: Elizabeth J. Radice, and 19 plus others. There were also many foster children brought into their home and loved.

Mrs. Williams worked many years for NASA and Cape Canaveral Hospital in Florida. After the work of employment and raising her children was done her and the love of her life Joe spent the last years of their lives in Milledgeville, Georgia.

If you look at any given life and exam what one puts their hand to and their life into it will tell you what they loved. Our mother loved us and she showed it everyday. We will all miss her so very much. Thank you to our mother we would not be who we are without her and we hope heaven is embracing her today and always.
