“ *Clay you will truly be missed. Your smile, your laughter, everything. I thought the world of you.
I met Clay at Jet where I work. Always had to have his coffee and Little Debbie snacks. He loved his kids dearly. He made it no secret. The world won't be the same without you Clay. RIP sweetie. Gone but never will be forgotten.*

“ Clay you will forever live in my heart man and be in my thoughts as the days go bye. Always full of love, I will see you again and what a joy that will be. I'll always regret not being able to spend more time with you. I will always be proud of of you for the man that you have grown to be. You have always been a hard worker, kind hearted and loving. Just fly high and free with the Angel's. Love you, and I know that you could feel it. You also showed more respect than anyone I know. Love you man

“ It's taken a lot of me to say something ... it hurts to see someone gone that I had spent four years+ around... The good times, all the Helen trips, the throwing plates at lol, the joking about your finger, times just replay, you were a good friend, but all the stuff aside and put in the past, my prayers and condolences are with the family, and I pray for comfort
