“ Memories are what sustain us as we continue the journey of life. Times like these we try and find the words to counsel and comfort our family. We are just getting to know the Mickler family as Jamee and Will united in marriage a short time ago. We had the pleasure of enjoying the same joyous occasion with Larry and Madyln (lots of family too)and know those memories will be shared in time to come.

“ Madyln and boys, I just want to tell you how sorry I am about Larry. I loved him like a brother. I was thinking about him on his birthday. The last time I saw him was in Macon at a Hockey Game and he looked and sounded so good. We had a lot of memories of our childhood years. They were happy times and I hope to be there Sunday to say good bye. May GOD bless you and the boys.
