

Cleon Brinson Eubanks

May 4, 2012

Cleon Brinson Eubanks of Milledgeville went home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Friday, May 4th. Mr. Eubanks was born on May 31, 1932 in Emmanuel County. He spent his younger years in Toombsboro. He was happily married to Gussie Dominy since their wedding day on August 16, 1952. Mr. Eubanks was a Korean War veteran, and also served in the Army National Guard. He worked as a civilian at Robin's Air Force Base for 33 years, while living in Fort Valley. Mr. Eubanks served his Lord faithfully at First Baptist Church in Fort Valley as a Deacon, RA leader, and Training Union Director. After retirement from RAFB, he was employed by Green Acres Baptist Church in Warner Robins. He has been a member of Covenant Baptist Church since moving to Milledgeville in 2008.

Mr. Eubanks is survived by his wife, Gussie Dominy Eubanks, his daughters, Donna Dunnam (Tom) of Milledgeville, and Patricia Alford (Michael) of Cape Cod, Massachusetts. Mr. Eubanks has 8 grandchildren (Joy Walter (Mikey), Caleb (Rebekah), Daniel, Candice, and Blane Dunnam, also, Taylor, Megan, and Jessica Alford). He was anticipating the arrival of two great grandchildren. Mr. Eubanks is also survived by his two nephews Jamie and Eric Eubanks. Mr. Eubanks was preceded in death by his parents Ruben Cleon Eubanks and Eula Mary Eubanks Smith, and his brothers David and Raymond Eubanks. Mr. Eubanks will be sorely missed by his family and friends. He was a very kind and godly man, and his family is very grateful for the godly heritage he

Visitation will be Sunday night, 7:00 to 9:00pm at Williams Funeral Home in Milledgeville. His funeral will be held Monday, May 7th at 2pm also at Williams followed with burial at Big Sandy Baptist Church in Wilkinson County.

For those who wish Memorial contributions may be made to donor's charity of choice.

“ My Dear Cousins-- Gussie, Patricia and Donna and all your extended family are in my prayers. CB will be missed in body but not in spirit. His life showed the love he had for GOD, Family and Country. Just know one day there will be a joyful family reunion surpassing the ones we celebrate here on Earth. HEAVEN's gates opened and he was ushered in.##imported-begin##Bruce Helton (Forsyth, GA)##imported-end##
