“ The boys and I posted almost immediately after we said our goodbyes to Craig and Dad. We posted on the funeral home website and our message was nixed by his new wife. What we said was how we missed him, his spirit and his great personality. We miss you Craig, have missed you and wish you peace in heaven. So glad we were able to be with you in your last days and love and hold you. Love of my life and Dad to our boys. Thank you for all you have given to us. So sad & Love you forever. Terry, Garrett & Cameron.

Oh my gosh. I just saw this. I'm so sad. Craig was a role model to me when I was young. Chris, if you're out there let's hook up. I'm sorry to hear this.

“ I was quite surprised to learn of my cousin Craig's passing. We knew each other more as acquaintances than as family, living as we did on opposites sides of the country, he in CA and I in NY. Nonetheless, I recall with fondness the visits his family would make to the east coast during the 1960s, and '70s. He was the quintessential surfer-type young man at that time, and it struck me how very different our lifestyles were. Despite the passing of the years, his memory is one that I will always hold dear not only in my mind but in my heart as well.

“ I met Craig at DWP and took an immediate liking to him. His high energy and carefree manner was contagious and influenced all who were fortunate to know him. We shared a lot of laughs, both at and outside of work. My condolences to his loved ones. His spirit lives through his sons - Garret and Cameron - and I shall always smile when thinking of him. Thanks for making my life better. Your friend, Devo

Cuneo Family,
May God bless and comfort you in this time loss. Craig was a good man and good friend. Central District (LADWP) was a happy and vibrant place because of him. He is truly missed.

God's Peace be with you all.

Craig's family lived next door to us in the San Fernando Valley. We had great times growing up. Craig and Chris were like my brothers. Our family were close and often spent Christmas Eve together. Lots of time spent at the beach. I'm sorry I was not able to see Craig in the past few years, he has always had a special place in my heart. We sat together at his brother's birthday party and looked at old pictures together and teared up. I will miss you Craig. I will cherish all those old pictures. RIP my old friend.

Love to you.
