“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. The sting of death is very painful. But when you throw all your pain on God (Psalm 83:18), He will comfort you and carry that pain for you. So draw close to God in prayer and He will draw close to you in return.(James 4:8)

“ Not only are you the father to our precious son Jack Jack...but you were my best friend, family no matter what. After everything we have been through you never uttered a bad word about me and loved me even when I couldn't love myself. Jackson never heard us argue once...we used to joke how we could teach a class on how to get along with an ex. I loved you then and I love you still. I have big shoes to fill, but not a day will go by that Jackson won't be praying for his daddy and until my last breath I will keep my son's daddy's memory alive no matter what!!!! Kiss Sherry and my Dad for me. Me and Jackson love you and don't you worry that little boy will be loved and taken care of forever. May you ride in on wings of angels my love. We love you always and forever!

Such an amazing message. I've held my emotions back since getting the news; however this opened the flood gates. We don't know each other, but I couldn't be more impressed with your love for Craig and keeping his memory alive for Jackson.

I hope you find peace, Nikki... you had something with him that no one else did... <3

Thank you...we were past that "in love" place...he truly was my very best friend! My rock! The only person who would still speak to me when it felt like the world was against me...I just still can't believe... Everyone please keep our son in your prayers!

You will never find a better friend or Daddy than Craig. What an awesome man who would give you his last dime or the shirt off his back. He was such a caring person and so great to be around. I'll never forget the times we spent together! Rest easy, Craig. You will never be forgotten.

I can't believe you are gone my brother. So many memories you and I had together growing up in Highland Village and at school. You were my brother. Even though we drifted apart for quite a while i knew all i had to do was pick up the phone and you would be there. You always made me laugh and picked me up when I was down. You were a great friend to everyone. But above all else you were a great daddy to Jackson. Rest in peace my brother. Hope to see you again.

To the Gardner family: my heart breaks for you and especially Jackson. Craig was a good man and was like a brother to me growing up. I wish this was all a bad dream and we could wake up from it. All we can do now is fill Jackson with all the good and funny stories of his daddy so he knows what kind of person he was. I pray that the good Lord above wraps his arms around y'all and gives you peace, comfort and understanding in this time of great sorrow. May he keep Jackson safe and only give him good memories of his daddy as he grows up. And that he helps guide all of you thru this storm. In this we ask in his name. Amen.

Rest in peace my friend. I will miss having you to talk to. You always knew just how to cheer me up... I'm forever grateful for your friendship.... You always believed in me... You are the true definition of unconditional love.. you'll forever be missed ❤️ until we meet again! ❤️

With great sadness and disbelief, I extend my sincere sympathy to Craig's family and friends for your tragic loss. Craig was such a compassionate, kind soul and a joy to be around and a loving father to Jackson. There will be a void in all the lives that Craig touched, but remember the good times. God's peace be with you all.
