“ Dan & Joan truly enjoyed life, always found time to visit & console those in need. He was a happy soul and truly devoted husband & father. This I know from hearing his loving words & comments about family. He was a friend to many. He was known to me from driving at Butler - always greeted with a smile - we loved his scooter stories and love of life.

“ We were neighbors with the Browns for a time when we lived at the lake. Dan was a good friend and would come by the welding shop when he needed something or just to chat. In the later years would come the Burger King to see us. Sending love & prayers to the family..

“ Oh what a precious family. It was not 3 months ago, I stopped by to visit and Mr Dan was in the yard picking up sticks. He loved and cared for his wife. I know Cindy the best and know her Mom and Dad loved her so. Love you BFF

“ I have so many fond memories of the Browns coming to Green Acres on Sunday to visit with the residents and to assist them in getting down to the worship services. Their devotion to the residents and their family members was such a blessing and always helped to brighten their days. Mr. Brown and Mrs. Brown were surely angels and devoted Christians.
