“ My deepest sympathies to the entire Desmore family and to my brother Kenny. I will always remember and think about the times Daphne and I shared. How I would mess with her and she'd get me when I least expect it.. I will always love you Daffy and be thankful for having her as part of my life and neice and nephews Vanessa Raul Toribio and Jason...

“ Prayers to the family. It has been a very long time since I had seen Daphne or her mom. I did not know her mom had passed. I lost touch after getting married back in the late 80's. When I was a lot younger, I remember the March of Dimes fundraisers that they would be at. I remember her smiles, laughter, and positive attitude. My parents would be there along with my sister, Brenda and I. My deepest sympathy, condolences, and prayers. Sincerely, Tina Stewart Strickland
