“ Mr. David, Everybody at jha misses your presence at the basketball game Friday, I miss walking by the bleachers and going to get something to eat and you would always stop me and start talking, we have talked so much I don't even remember half of the stuff we talked about, and if momma and daddy were in the kitchen during one of my games I could always count on you to get me one. I love you and really do miss you

“ Mr. David, I haven't really known you until I arrived at JHA last year with your amazing kids. I'm really close with your son Gavin. The boy has the biggest heart ever and the mindset of a champion. I always admired the fact that you were at every sporting event to support your kids. You were not only a father but a hero as well as a role model. We all love and miss you dearly

“ David...where do we start? We miss you like crazy. Still isn't clicking that you got your wings already....but we know you are watching down on us. And probably laughing with us at all the amazing and funny memories we all keep recalling. There are so many. You were taken way too soon, but we know you are in the best hands possible. Until we see you again...we love you and we miss you so much! Love: Aaron, Brittany, Abel & Addison (coming June 3rd!) Sharp 💕

“ I didn't personally know Mr. Giles , but I am close friends with his son Gavin. Just by knowing Gavin and what an amazing, kind, respectable young man that Gavin is I know his father was just as much and more. I terrible sorry to hear about your loss. I send thoughts and prayers to you and your family.
