“ There was a sweetness at the core of David that was as innocent and beautiful as a child's eyes when they first took note of a butterfly or a flower. If I could keep only one memory of him in my heart, it would be of the way his own eyes lit up and of the look on his face when his son David came by to see him at work one morning at Scott. Peace be with you, David and with all who loved you.##imported-begin##Thelma C. Guaetta##imported-end##
