What a beautiful service for a fine gentleman who loved God, his family & others! This livestream was a blessing/a miracle for those of us less blessed to be there. Memories of David - "Patron Saint of Macon music" - are forever etched in my mind, He has to be gazing down from heaven. We will see our friend - friend to all - again. It's because of the promise of eternal life.

“ I never met David but I did know of him and got to view some local musicians due to the fact he was good enough to post to social media. My daughter and other family members knew him and I am sorry never had the opportunity . My condolences to his family . He obviously was well loved and appreciated in middle Georgia.

“ I loved him. If you met him, you'd love him too. He was so alive, so honest, so full of love of life and music. He had some struggles and he had come a long way. The life of the party will be sorely missed.

“ We didn't know David as long as many of the other friends in Georgia but we sure felt the warmness of his soul! He made us feel so welcome at our first GABBAFEST in September 2024 and we instantly felt a strong connection with him. When we told him we were buying a house in Macon he always replied to our questions about neighborhoods so graciously. We thought we would enjoy many years of friendship with him but God had other plans. One of the truly unforgettable people we have met so far in Georgia and a real one of a kind human being. Rest easy and Godspeed, David.

“ I have no words David. To say I'm stunned is an understatement. I'm thankful you didn't have prolonged suffering and you are now with your beloved Karen. You were such a driving force for GABBA and you left some big shoes to fill. I don't know of anyone that could do what you did. Lifting your loved one's in prayer that God gives them strength and comfort during this most difficult time.

“ My heart is broken. I met David when he lived in Atlanta. I'm pretty sure our love of blues music is how we met. If I ever was down, or sick, or needed a driver David would show up. He was that type of friend. He's going to be missed terribly. I'm pretty sure that I'm going to cry whenever I see Nancy and he's not with her. Tommy, David's brother, David and I have worked together with GABBA for a few years now. Even when they disagreed about something you could see & feel the bond between them. My prayers go out for Justin, Candace and the boys, to Luna, Tommy, Nancy Cobb and everyone else who's life was blessed for knowing him.

On other GABBA trips since, he has been equally wonderful sadly without Michelle. The musicians jam in heaven must have been pretty spectacular when you went up! You will be forever missed. You made a huge difference in countless people's lives.*

To Tommy Jarrell and all David's family, my prayers are with you all as we all are so saddened by this earthly loss of a great person that was loved and admired by so many. David always had a helpful attitude, loved to be involved, and promoted so many music groups and enlarged their reach to increase their fan base and spread love & friendship through music. 🎵 It is hard to imagine we will not see him at our tailgates at the BW, hanging out in the hotel room all crowded in together, and at Grant's, and every other music venue in town, but he will be especially missed at GABBA which he loved so much and was a vice president this year. God had higher goals for our dear friend, David. Until we see him again, may his memory live on for his friendship & love for others.

“ To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;.....

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

My heart and prayers go out to his family, Nancy, friends, and all who loved him. He was a shining star and so proud of his Macon music scene. Young and old , he knew em all and supported local music like no other. David was such a good person. Lolthough he did occasionally call himself the nicest asshole you could ever hope to meet. He was kind, funny, sweet. He lived the life he loved and loved the life he lived. Whenever I was around him I felt good about myself! I so regret not calling him when I heard he was sick but I thought I'd see him at Society Garden and I didn't want to bother him while he had so much on his mind.

I will always love and miss you, my friend, David

“ David, known as "DJ" was loved by everyone he crossed paths with. He was also known as the "Patron Saint of Macon Music". Yes, he really enjoyed music, especially that of the legendary Allman Brothers Band. That's an ABBsolute fact.

Most of all, David loved the Lord, his family & friends. He'll be sadly missed, although I feel certain I'll see him again. It's because of the promise of eternal life. Heaven will be my gain, too, one day.
