“ I really don't even know what to say...I'm still in shock. With everything we have been through together in the last 11 years I've learned LOTS n one thing forsure is.. you LOVE n LOVE hard... from our talks,camp overs,dinners,etc I knew how much u just wanted to be accepted,have a family to call yours,people to understand u,and just to be LOVED BACK!!!You taught me how to forgive n move on shit happens. We couldn't never understand "why" things happened like they always seemed!!! YOU TRIED and WANTED so bad diffirent results...You loved your kids,Papa Jack,family,n friends like there wasn't a tomorrow. I could go on and on... NO matter the good,bad, way ugly or worse you were always YOU!! We would wonder why n how God put others in our path... you either get a lesson or blessing... If u ever wonder how much God loves us just think about David.. a pure,loving heart that loved unconditionally and would help anyone out! I've been dealing with my own demons n didn't know if I had another fight in me or could even do it. Now as we sit around to remember all the good times n memories w you I know this.... you never gave up or quit....and I KNOW u wouldn't have w Any of us... now you will be holding my hand all along n in my heart forever. I know you were tired and God has his reasoning. I'm grateful for every sec I was with u. YOU finally got what u wanted n will be happy n without any pain. I will ALWAYS love n be forever grateful....this is NOT the end,just my BEGINNING! I KNOW u will be right there the whole way through. Please don't leave my side. I know you WON'T let me fail. You will be our testimony we will ALWAYS share!!! RIP my forever LOVE!!!! My hearts broken into pieces! Prayers!!! 💔

I'm going to miss you so much . I tried so hard to be there for you after Daddy died. I always saw your kind heart , but I know you couldn't get past the deamons . I know how much you Loved the Lord . We talked about the Bible a lot . When you came to Northridge Christian , you absolutely loved the Church . You can be at peace now in Heaven with Daddy, Mama, and LaRue , but especially with our Awesome God . Go rest high on that mountain my baby brother . I love you with all my heart .

“ I haven't know David his whole life nor did I know him for years but I can honestly say he was the kindest sweetest most real individual I have met in my life timewe clicked.....I understood him my heart felt for him I wanted to protect him.....his kindness was often mistaken for weakness by some whom he failed to realize didn't have one iota of humanity that David had and never will! Somewhere in his short life he believed there was something wrong with him he couldn't understand why things were always hard for him he felt alone and just wanted to feel wanted he knew his family loved him and a few good friends he talked highly about and I had the pleasure to meet but some he offered His heart and they crushed it I know his family children and little Paige will miss his love his sweetness she lit up.when he walked in the room as i didthe pain and heart ache that tortured hi Dailey took it's toll and I believe we all saw a change and when we spoke on Christmas he seemed happier saying he kinda enjoyed the single life his house looked amazing clean and set up nice I was suppose to meet him the nite before the accident I was late getting back texted several times with no response it was when inawoke late.the next morning the news came hitting me like a ton of bricksthey say only the good die Young he was the best He may have had bad habits mostly to cover up painbut a heart that was so big and more love for a stranger than for himself he will be missed he is so loved he will forever be remembered he left anmark on.me like no other he made me understand.myself and I thank you rest in peace.my friend watch over me and help.guide me your finally free of anquish u finally understand and therefore you received the highest reward peace my brother till I see u again love u to the moon and back Melissa manns

what you said was so true of David all to often we are judged without truly knowing someone as a person who has suffered from depression, and drug addiction, etc I understood David Im glad I met him and that he and my son were friends.R.IP.

“David "D.J. Johnson there's nothing I can say about David that any one who has ever met him don't know.. Every cents the first time I met David he has all ways had a big heart and would do anything in this world for someone he seen struggling... And no matter what's going on in his life he always stayed positive.. Every time I seen him no matter where we where at or what was going on he would always go out his way to speak.. Just like me I been going through some hard times and I just so happen to stop at the store out on 212 I got out the car as David was coming out the door he stopped gave me a hug like always asked how I was we talked a min he told me to go get what I was getting he wanted to talk to me so I did went out to gas pumps he was getting gas.. I already knew what he wanted to talk about we always would talk about the same thing.. If you don't know me my daughter Shania and Matt been dating a min now.. Well like always he went to talking about the kids how proud he was of them I good they or together how both of them where hard working and how much they loved each other.. But long story short we stood there blocking the pump good 30 to 45 mins. Finally I told him I was driving someone car I was working on i need to get on back I told him I loved him went to go get in the car to leave he come behide to car told me he know I been having a hard time and pulled out $30 gave it to me told me it wasn't much.. Gave me hug went back to his truck... R.I.P David Johnson I will always Love you brother.. My prayer for his family.. This world will never be the same...
