“ Dan and I were best friends from the time we were in the second grade through graduation from Mercer University. We did and shared everything together. We pledged different fraternities at Mercer and we were friendly rivals when school was in session and then best friends during holidays. I knew his family extremely well and he knew mine. We grew apart in early adulthood and I never knew why. We fell completely out of touch to my lifelong regret. I just learned of his death early last year. MAY HE RIP.

“ Not gone away

*Though you may not be here,
you have not gone away.
We will see your face
and hear your voice every day.*

*Though you may not be here,
you have not gone away.
As you let go of our hand to take the Lord's,
shed your doubts of Judgement Day.*

*Though you may not be here,
you have not gone away.
Now that you have made your mark,
we can rejoice on your brand new day.*

*Though you may not be here,
you have not gone away.
When the banners wave and the Tide Rolls,
in our hearts, you will forever stay.*

We love you and will miss you.
