“ Susan, I am so sorry for your loss. I know you are going to miss him so much. I remember way back when, none of us even thought about our life coming to an end, we lived for the moment and loved every minute of it. Now it seems like every week we lose another one and I know that is part of the cycle, but it doesn't make it any easier to say goodbye. You are in my thoughts and prayers and time will ease the pain.

“ Susan, I just heard the news. I can't imagine going to the Piggly Wiggly and not hearing David call out from the car when I crossed the parking lot. He always had something interesting to talk about. It sure makes me sad to know he is no longer with us. When I saw you, I knew he wasn't far behind. What a love story. My deepest sympathy to you and Josh, which he sure was proud of. I'll keep you and your family in prayer.
