“ I have been out of town and have just heard the news of Dawn's Passing today, over a week later. I knew Dawn since before her surgery to prepare to get a new liver. I heard from her frequently through the years since then and had watched with much sadness as each picture she published looked weaker and weaker. She never seemed to give up and I pray God will bless each of you who loved her so much as you go through the coming days and weeks without her.

“ Dawn you were/are always a sweet ,kind, and patient woman. Even though our high school years I knew you were going to be a beautiful mother and you are such a caring person. The Lord holds your hand now and the angels must move over for your soul shines so brightly! You will always be remembered!!! ❤️

I met Dawn on my fb. she ask me to pray for her, and God knows i did my best, she touched my heart with her story, and her loving family, For some reason it was not meant to be, God saw her suffering and decided she had had enough pain, and took her home where she has no more pain, God answered my prayers just not the way i had expected, RIP sweet friend, we will meet again soon.
