“ Deanna it has been 2 months since you went to live with Jesus, we know you are free of all pain, ridicule from others that didn't understand you, those are the ones that will have to live with the way they cut you down and called you names cause you came out on top and i pray for those that should have treated you better cause we were and still are so proud of you. You are a beautiful ANGEL and we will always love, miss and cherish the time we had with you. I think of you day and night and will see you again when God is ready to bring me home. I go in your room alot and talk to you and i change Noah in there and i tell him about his Aunt Dean Dean and will give him the letter you wrote to him when he is old enough to understand. I could not have had a more beautiful and special daughter than you. Love forever and always

“ I had the wonderful pleasure to go to middle and high school with Deanna. We also ended up working together in the Craig Building for a short time. Deanna was a wonderful person who was always full of life and love. Her face was always lit up with a smile. I sorely miss such a wonderful person. May god bless your family in your time of greif.##imported-begin##Shannon Decker Lewis##imported-end##

“ Sympathy and prayers for God's comfort in your time of sorrow are extended. May the words of this poem help you in some way.

The Balm of God's Love

*When we lose someone we love
The loss seems too great to bear
God sends us friends to comfort us
To show that He deeply cares
But in the dark hours of the night
When there's nobody else around
When we feel the saddest and loneliest
It's there God's love can be found
It's like a soothing, healing balm
To soothe our broken hearts
The healing oil poured over us
That flows into every part
We can rest secure in God's love
And know He's by our side
He holds us when we feel as though
A part of us has died
We can know that God will listen
When we just want to talk
And when we feel we need to cry
We can share it with the Lord
For He is always waiting there
Ready with arms open wide
As we pour out the hurt within
He pours His love inside
Our Father above loves us so much
And will never leave us alone
He will not forsake us in our need
To face this on our own
He comforts us and strengthens us
And rubs us with His balm
And as the dawn breaks through the night*

*We'll awake in His loving arms.

“ Deanna and I were friends for years in grade school. she was one of the sweetest, and most kind friends i have ever known. always rooting for the underdog, it is not surprizing to me that she went into the medical field. i have looked for her online for years, never successful. today i have recieved numerous phone calls, from family and friends that knew how much i loved her. and so she is found. i cannot tell you how sorry i am for your loss. and i cannot tell you how sorry i am for the loss to this world. i am deeply saddened i didnt get to find her, but i know that one day we will embrace in heaven again, cause she always had such a remarkable faith in God, even as a girl. i pray that God will give you the strength to endure this great loss.##imported-begin##Kristina Ivey (kristy haislip)##imported-end##
