My niece Diane was truly an uplifting and enthusiastic individual. Despite all of life's obstacles she kept a great attitude. She will be missed by so many who loved her.

*Papa has taken Diane home where there is no suffering or pain
She has left us with her love and memories
Until someday when we see her again.*

“ Di brought happiness to every customer she met at Starbuck’s. Loved chatting with her. Her humor, sweet countenance, and caring manner made the coffee and conversation even more delicious. We will miss you, Di. Prayers to all your earthly loved ones. Rest easy in your heavenly home... Love, Sandy

“ I first met Di when she was a student in college at GMC. She spent lots of time in the tutoring center and had the best, most compassionate math professor on campus. Somehow we discovered that i knew you, Camille, from the years you and Phyllis took care of my boys, Michael and Chris. You and Phyllis were so compassionate and supportive when we lost Dexter that I have never forgotten your kindness. I'm so very sorry that you lost Di. She was always upbeat (well, except for Math) and kind. Losing some so important to you is incredibly hard. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. And though I know you are terribly heartbroken, I am grateful Di's pain is no longer, and she is free and able to celebrate "leaving this mortal by."

“ *I recently connected with Diane thru facebook after 40 yrs. i was her stepmother for four years when she was 7 yrs old. She was the sweetest and funniest child! I cherished the time we spent together. Both Diane and Kristen connected with me thru facebook recently and that was a surprise and a gift. Diane and I had many conversations via facebook messaging and it was wonderful. I feel so blessed to have been able to reconnect with her! She will always be in my thoughts. I remember a poem you first wrote:

*A mountain may crumble
A mountain may fall
But most of all
A mountain stands proudest of them all*

This is my poem to you.

*My sister and I, at times, were not very close. But came together
As life moved forward
We stayed afloat.*

*Very kind and poetic
With animals and friends
Life gives you choices
We all try to make amends*

*Our time together was short
But with memories that will last forever*

*I will look up no matter how far
Because I know you're in heaven
And you will be the brightest star*

*I promise the time you came home
I will bring your spirit
Back to the ocean floor
Where we belong*

*I love you Di - your sister forever.
I'll see you again, but not yet 😊❤️*

“ Even when the world gave her reasons to be down, Di found every reason to still be kind and loving to people around her. From the surprise Starbucks visits to the after-shift beers on Pickle Barrel's patio, Di always found a way to brighten my day. I'll forever hold on to the conversations we had about life and be grateful for the love she has shown me over the years. If there was something I could do to hear "I love you honey & have a good day!" one more time I'd do it in a heartbeat. Stay stress free up there as you watch over everyone you spread joy too, and I can't wait to see you again my sweet friend.

“ My beautiful cousin who could always put a smile on your face and make you laugh with her jokes, a kind and loving person who was always there for others and loved her animals...my heart is broken that you are gone. I'll always cherish my memories, the camping trip in Maine when we were kids, trick or treating, etc... Fly with those angel wings!!

“ Di always had such a positive outlook on everything From her outstanding customer service at Starbucks - and she could run that drive thru like nobody else, to her infectious laughter, and to her genuine love of people, we all at Pickle Barrel knew her as our friend. I know she is in heaven keeping everyone laughing. I pray her family finds peace during this tough time. Di was loved and will be missed by her friends at the PBC.
