“ It is such a tragedy in the passing of Mr. Danny Patel. I have gone to his store many times to purchase items or to pay for gas. He was always so nice with a friendly and welcome smile on his face. Money is not worth taking the life of any human being. I pray God will give his family comfort and peace. I keep thinking of him, and I also think of his wife. Mr. Patel and his wife were usually always together in the store each time I would stop by.###imported-begin###Connie Overman###imported-end##

“ Danny was one of the most charismatic and big-hearted people I have ever met.

A lot of people around here (myself included) are still having a hard time believing it. This is a very, very sad week in Baldwin County.

I rode by the store around 8 o'clock Thursday night and there were still probably a dozen cars in the parking lot.

To the family: Remember that time heals. Always has. Always will. Grieve at your own pace and remember that time is on your side.

“ It was with sadness that I read of the tragic death of Mr. Patel. Although I didn't know him, personally, my husband did. He always talked about what a wonderful man he was. If only the world could be filled with more men the caliber of Danny Patel!

Mr. Patel & I shared the same birthday. I'm a good bit older. His passing makes me realize how short life can be. We should live each day as if it could be our last with kindness & love for our fellow human beings.

When I lose some one I love, I always take comfort in this. The promise of eternal life with our departed loved ones becomes the gift of hope. We will all be together again one day.

My thoughts & prayers are with you.
