“ Don was always my favorite cousin, his Dad my favorite uncle. He passed away a month after my Mom, it took me this long to find him. I was born in Salem, Mass and spent the first 3 months of my life in his home. Grammy Meade also lived there, it had been her house and she was a character for 98 years. Miss Don, lost track of him and did not know he went south... Odd, next week I will be 69.

“ Don and I would spend long talks at Challenger games & at the gym talking about our boys. Also he had a really good time at one game when my Philly family was there and they and Don got all "trash talking about Eagles & Phillies." I could tell he enjoyed the banter that the northeastern folks do & it's possibly too scary for Southern folks to do. They really enjoyed him. :)
