“ Annette and family,
I'm so sorry for the lost of such a dear friend. His suffering is over and today he is smiling as he looks into our dear Savior's face. There is no more pain and suffering as he is rejoicing with a new body and looking over his new mansion. He and Charles are sitting down to talk things over once again. I know of the sadness and loss you feel , but I know God will give you strength for the days ahead. My prayers are with you.
Love. Carolyn

“ I would like to say I am so sorry for the lost of your beloved friend and family member.No matter when or how we lose someone in death it is always a heartbreaking event.We wonder how could something like this be happening to us, and why did we have to lose this person so soon.God makes us a promise at John 5:28,29 that he will resurrect people who have done good things back to life. These people have a chance to live on a paradise earth mentioned at Luke 23:43.Can you imagine being able to see your family member in good health again on a beautiful earth?Seems like it isnt possible but it is because of the ransom Jesus Christ provided each of us.Below is a link to a brochure that talks more about how to cope with the death of a loved one, when you get a moment please look at it.It provides comfort from the Bible and gives us hope.
