

Doris Woodall

October 19, 1926 - June 17, 2023

Mrs. Doris (Myrtle) Polk Woodall, 96, passed away on June 17, 2023, surrounded by her loved ones. A graveside service will be held on Monday, June 26, 2023, 2:00 pm, at Baldwin Memorial Gardens in Milledgeville. Williams Funeral Home, Rev. Larry Glover, will officiate the service. The family will remain at the graveside to receive friends after the service.

Mrs. Woodall was a native of Baldwin County before moving to Macon, GA, where she lived most of her life. She married George Furney Woodall in 1943 and had two children. She is the daughter of the late Julius and Myrtle (McMichael) Polk, and was preceded in death by her husband, George Furney Woodall. Mrs. Woodall retired from civil service as the Division Secretary at Robins Air Force Base.

A comfort to many and a joy to all, "Dot" Woodall was loved by all who met her. Not a day went by where Dot didn't talk about how much her children and family meant to her -- her family was arguably her most important achievement in life. She never met a stranger and made friends everywhere she went. Her beautiful red hair and sassy demeanor were the immediate traits people fell in love with. She was the best daughter, mom, grandmother, GG, niece, aunt, cousin and friend anyone could ever ask for.

She is survived by her daughter, Sheila Woodall Horne (Larry) of Eatonton, GA; son, James Culver Woodall of Tifton, GA; grandchildren, Lisa O. Horne of Gray, GA, Shane Woodall of Macon, GA, Lori (Horne) Wooley (Kelby) of Augusta, GA, and Crystal Spradlin of Macon, GA,; and many great grandchildren, nieces, cousins, and extended family who dearly loved her.

“ My grandmother was a fantastic, smart, beautiful woman who was protective of her family and a dedicated friend to all. The memories of her will last forever and will continue to be shared with loved ones. Her love of life and dancing was second to none and her smile could light up a room. She was an incredible cook and a great card player. I will always remember waking up at her house on weekends watching her read the paper and drinking her coffee at the dining room table waiting to cook breakfast for us. We had some incredible chats during these quiet moments: life, laughs, interests, and future plans were always discussed. She loved her family fiercely and never said "no" when we wanted to spend the night. I remember that my grandparent's house was the first place I drove to when I got my driver's license. My grandparent's home was always filled with love; it was also where me and my sister told our family that we were pregnant with our children. So many loving memories that will forever be remembered that included them. I am so blessed to have had my grandmother in my life for almost 50 years; my kids had her for over 20! No one could ask for a better role model. I will forever love and miss you. May you dance forever to the angel's music. I love you. Lori
