

Dorothy Mathis

July 30, 1929 - November 7, 2006

Mrs. Mathis passed away Tuesday Nov. 7, 2006. She was a lifelong resident of Baldwin county. retired L.P.N. from Central State Hospital and was a member of Hardwick Baptist Church. She was the daughter of the late Ivey Lee Fuller and Mackie Lou Watson Fuller, and was predeceased by her husbands, Floyd R. Franks and John Mathis, a son Randy Franks, and a granddaughter Lisa Franks Blevins. She is survived by a Son, Phil Franks of Dallas, Texas; Granddaughter, Amanda Franks of Athens; Great Granddaughter, Caitlyn Blevins of Kennesaw; Sister, Lillian Ward of Milledgeville; Nephew, Don Mathis of Milledgeville.

Tribute Wall

“ Phil,

I'm so sorry to read of your mother's death. She was always a super nice lady. I'll never forget all the times we cooked spaghetti in her kitchen. I'll be out of town tonight through Sunday or I would be at visitation and the funeral.##imported-begin##Anne Buckner Burgamy##imported-end##

November 09, 2006 at 11:05 AM

“ I know Miss Mathis Form The Nursing Home##imported-begin##Denise Lowery (CNA)##imported-end##

November 08, 2006 at 08:26 PM

“ She was a wonderful grandma. She was such a strong lady with a heart of gold. She enjoyed her entire life from work to home & told stories about both often.##imported-begin##Amanda Franks##imported-end##

November 08, 2006 at 05:33 PM