

Dot Engelauf

April 12, 1934 - August 5, 2021

Dorothy Jean "Dot" Engelauf , age 87, of Eatonton, was born on April 12, 1934. Surrounded by her children, Dorothy passed away on Thursday, August 5, 2021 . A Celebration of Life for Dot will be conducted on Tuesday August 31 at 11:00AM where she will be reunited with Bob on their wedding anniversary. The memorial will take place at the Georgia Veterans Memorial Cemetery in Milledgeville. Dot has sent many signs of comfort to let her family and loved ones know that she is dancing in the light of God.

> Dorothy was retired from the Macon Water Authority and lived on Lake Sinclair. She enjoyed riding the boat on the lake, sitting on the dock watching sunsets and planting new life in her gardens. Dot was a long standing member of the Officer's Wives Club and did many hours of volunteer work. When stationed in Maine, she hosted many events for the SAC "Q-RATS" and was considered a mom to many soldiers that were stationed far from their families. She continued this tradition when the family moved to Warner Robins.

> Dorothy and Bob would hit the winter banks of Maine on their snowmobiles and enjoyed the summers at the lake house on Mud Lake. When stationed in Warner Robins, Dorothy was a avid bowler and belonged to many leagues. Dorothy was a proud and devoted grandmother of two grandsons and relished the moments watching them grow into young men.

> Dorothy is survived by her daughter Rhonda (and husband Kenneth) Allen of Jacksonville FL, her son Rob (and wife Helena) Engelauf of Eatonton GA , her grandchildren Robert John and Richard Evan Engelauf of Macon, Ga, many “honorary” grandkids, her sister-in-law Sue (and husband Bob) of Dayton, Ohio, many loved nieces and nephews, friends and her loving dog Sammy.
