“*Dot was a sweet lady. Loved getting to know her through JMA where my children, Ashley and Tyler Peck attended with Rae. At her wonderful shop, she always took time to show me the special tricks of her trade with bows and packaging. May God bring His comfort to all of you through your family and friends. I am sending this message in regards to the passing of Mrs Joyner. I am sorry but I have just recently learned of the loss of a very kind and supportive person. I say this because as a student at John Milledgeville I was fortunate to get to know her. I remember several times where she would come to my basketball games and give me support. She was always quick to tell me how I played which gave me motivation knowing that she took the time to really care. This just made me realize what kind of people that I wanted in my life. I also remember our conversations we had when we crossed each other's path while our and about in milledgeville. Each encounter was always positive in more ways than you can imagine. Even through the short time of knowing her she will always be close to my heart. I will never forget her. That I promise.

“ This was probably in the sixties, Aunt Dot, but you called to say that you had a recipe that called for cream, butter and sugar, but there was no cream in the ingredients list. Since you were known for not cooking I explained the process. That night you called to say that you had baked a cake. You had bought a mixer and a bundt pan for a made from scratch pound cake with vanilla frosting. Delicious! It was such an event that we took a photo for proof that you had cooked. You have made us laugh so many times. Jerry and I miss you. Your calls and your quick wit always made our day. Love forever, Linda Green

“ So happy I was able to reconnect with Dot in December to celebrate Nydira's birthday with friends. Had not seen her in years and we had so much fun reminiscing about the good times we shared when we lived in Milledgeville over 25 years ago.

“ I dearly loved Aunt Dot. We have so many great childhood memories with her and Uncle Al. Going to her house and her dancing in the living room with Pat and me. She was so much fun! I will treasure spending time with her on her 75th birthday; taking her to dinner after going to church with her. Her testimony is an inspiration of how nothing is more important than to know Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. What a blessing she has been in my life. I will miss her!

Rae, our prayers are with you and your family. May God strengthen and comfort you now.

Aunt Dot was a very special lady! I remember when I was young Aunt Dot took us to Oak Park to see Grandma and my uncles and aunts. So many good memories to look back on. We were very blessed to have Aunt Dot and will always cherish the memories! Her faith in GOD was always very strong. She said as long as we have the Love of GOD in our hearts we will have every thing we need! Rae I know that it is hard to loose your mother but heaven is rejoicing and welcoming its newest resident. You are in our thoughts and prayers for peace that passes all understanding and may you find comfort in memories of her.
