“ Dylan always walked in my house with that gorgeous smile, a hug and a “Hey, Ms Amy” or ‘Mama Bear’. He always showed respect for me and had the best manners! He was silly and spontaneous but also thoughtful and introspective. The boys are blessed to have had him in their lives and I’m so blessed to have the memories. My heart is with his parents. Job well done with that one!

“ Hey Marty I’m so sorry you and your family are having to deal with this overwhelming time and situation. Just remember what I told you the other day GOD has you and your family in the palm of his hand. GOD knew before he was conceived what his purpose and time on earth would be. You guys did a great job raising a very respectful young man. I will never forget his very cool very positive attitude. That is hard to find in kids his age today. I will continue to pray for you and your family and if there’s anything I can do for y’all please don’t hesitate to ask. God bless you all.

My heart is broken into pieces but it also smiles for the sweet memories that I have had the pleasure of sharing while being in the presence of such a remarkable and well mannered young man. I have watched you grow for years and to know that you were this pleasant on earth gives me the joy of knowing that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I love you all and may his spirit live in your hearts FOREVER and ALWAYS. Rest in the arms of the great high GOD.*
