“ Cheryl,
I send my deepest heartfelt sympathy to your family and you. I just found out today via e-mail about your mother's death. Some of my fondest memories relate to the many times I spent with friends and you in your parents home. I loved your mother dearly. As a teacher and business woman she was a role model and pioneer of her day. As a person she was an inspiration to all. I feel that, by example , she is part of the reason I became a teacher. She was always willing to be involved with the young people in Milledgeville ... especially her childrens' friends . It seems as if she was always there for us. Although many years and miles have passed I will never forget your family and You. I suffer the loss of your mother too. She will be truly missed. I also celebrate her life here on earth as well as in heaven. I only regret that, as your friend, I could not be there for you at this time. My thoughts and prayers are with you now and in weeks to come.

Love and prayers,
Bobbie##imported-begin##Barbara Meeks Sanders##imported-end##

“ Dear Cheryl, Jimmy and Family,

Aunt Edith was always a part of my life growing up. She took extra time with me and I have cherished memories of her.

She was a very special lady.

Some times she would remind me of I love Lucy.

What a bright smile she always had!

LOVE YOU ALWAYS

Aunt Edith

“ Dear Ivey Family,

My heart is truly saddened at the news of Mrs. Ivey's passing. She was a great lady and my memories will always be filled of those years spent at Gingerbread House on Jefferson Street and then later off Garrett Way. She was a great teacher and lover of children. I wish that there was someone of her character and grace that I could share my children with now. She will be greatly missed. May the comfort of a loving God surround your family during this time of greif.

Sincerely,

Greg Hutchins and Family
