“ I was one of the human strays that migrated to her and eventually felt like family. She was my 2nd Mama, my big sister, my wise life coach and the most influential person in my life. She taught me how to be a strong woman, a redheaded force to be reckoned with and how to fight for me and mine. I told her a long time ago that I can't imagine my world without her in it. I think I just gained a very obstinate and protective Guardian Angel. I'll miss her every day. My thoughts are with you all.

“ When I was a young boy, Elaine would come and visit her sister Francis and her family who lived across the road from our family. I recall her auburn red hair and how we enjoyed being together as children. Those times were so innocent and special. I have wondered at times where this young playmate may have been and now I have an answer. It is a bitter sweet time to learn of someone's passing but a comfort to know something of how they lived life. Condolences to Elaine's family and may you find peace in the days ahead.
