“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family. "Aunt Elizabeth" was one of the first names I knew when came to work at CSH in 1958. Betty and Mary praised her and Mr. Lewis all the time. When I met her, I learned that she was all the things they had said about her and more. Then when R.L. came to work with us, I felt like I knew her even better. She loved everyone she met just as if they were closest kin. I shall never forget her sweet spirit. May God bless you.##imported-begin##Ruby Snow##imported-end##

“ Tim, So very sorry to hear that your Mom has passed away. The memories of all of us living on Bloodworth St. are still with me. What came to mind when I saw her picture just now was "...do I call her Elizabeth or do I call her Mrs. Brannan?" I never was sure because we were all so young and Mama always called her Elizabeth. Sweet memories of a good woman. May she rest in peace.##imported-begin##Sandra Jones Prosser##imported-end##
