“ Condolences to all family and friends for your lost. Ms Liz became a friend to my wife Colleen, granddaughter Annabella and myself in 2012. She was a kind hearted,nice,caring woman, a fair merchant who befriended us. We came to know her during the many visits to purchase furniture, 4 Morris Minors & many parts after I cleaned the storage building. She was always pleasant and shared her past experiences with family, cars, travels and business. We had kept in touch with an occasional phone call, text message or visit when passing through Milledgeville. I last spoke to Ms Liz in February and afterwards corresponded with text. Prayers for comfort to all who had known her, 12/26/25 Richard McPherson

“ Sincere condolences to all the family and friends. I first met Liz through ol Mikee and our love of Minis. Mike and I hit it off like we had known each other for years. I grew up in England and my mother is also from England, so we would talk about all kinds of things, not just Minis. I was stationed in Warner Robins at the time and went to visit and to pick up a Mini. I got to meet the brains behind the man, Liz!
They were always so kind to me and my family. I got two Minis from Mike and still have one of them. After Mike passed I stayed in touch with Liz and purchased a few bits and pieces for the Mini she still had laying around. She would always ask how we all were doing and we would just chat...it's sad to lose such a wonderful lady, but at the same time comforting knowing that Mike and Liz are back together again and I'm sure having a grand old time! Thank you Liz for the times we were able to share together, I will always have fond memories of you both. Again, sincerest condolences from my family to everyone who knew and loved Liz.
