“ I will miss my Dear Sweet Cousin, Elizabeth Richardson! My sister, Marie Antionette Layfield who was her best friend and also first-cousin passed about a year ago. I know they're already rehashing all the wonderful times we all shared at Grandpa William Buford Richardson's homeplace. He purchased a brand new bicycle from Western Auto when her Dear Dad returned home from WWI(maybe a little later) and she let me ride it up and down that long, long driveway where the sign states former home of GA Governor Clarke. She was always so gracious to a 4yr old in 1940 and we played "rock school" many, many times on the beautiful front porch and steps which are no longer part of the place. Linda and I will pray for the family and She looks more like my sister in the photo than my own sister! God bless and keep you all during this time. In the name of Jesus Christ, I am, Buford M.(B.Marion)Pennington & Linda B. Pennington
