

Elizabeth Homer

November 15, 1912 - April 12, 2007

Elizabeth Homer, age 94, died April 12, 2007 in Eatonton, GA where she made her home for the last 15 years on beautiful Lake Sinclair. She was born to William and Sarah Homer in Howard, SD., December 15, 1912 and moved to Columbus, Ohio in 1920. She was a lifetime associate of F. & R. Lazarus where she loved her work as a foods buyer and supervisor in restaurant and food preparation. In her free time she was an excellent seamstress and quilter and of course, an outstanding cook. She is preceded in death by her dear sister, Lillian Fern Dellinger. She is survived by her nephew Roger William Dellinger and his wife Edith with whom she made her home, her niece Sally Dellinger of Columbus, a great nephew Blaine William Dellinger of Wooster and very dear friends Pete and Joan Chupp of Eatonton Ga. She loved her pets and delighted in the birds and plants around her lake in Georgia. She was a member of Worthington Presbyterian Church.

Services and Interment will be held at a later date at Sunset Cemetery, Galloway, OH. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Green Acres Nursing Home, Milledgeville, GA 31061 or to the charity of the donors choice.
