“ I would like to take some time out of today to give my condolences to a family of a friend of mine. You were always smiling and happy in school. You even broke me out of my shell in school. Emma you were such a good humble friend. Even though we all went our seperate ways after high school, I can still consider you a friend the way you treated me in school. I wish you would've talk to more of your friends to not lead to an enemy attack. In the name of Jesus, the enemy did not get the best of you and in your last breathe God blessed you. Rest in peace Emma, your friend Luis Rodriguez

“ Emma was one of the few people at school I bonded with very quickly. I met her at House Church and no matter what, she was always a huge light in my life. Even after I left school she tried very hard to keep in touch with me, and I will always love her for that. I miss her so much.

“ One of my favorite memories of Emma is one of the many late night Taco Bell runs. We got to the drive-through and Emma immediately burst out, "Ewww Taco Bell breakfast?!? That's disgusting!" We didn't know the guy waiting for our order could hear her so he replied, "It is not disgusting!!" We all started laughing so hard! I'll miss moments like this with her but I'll keep them in my memory forever.
