“ Pat, Sherry and Lynda, I was so blessed to have had Mickey for a friend for all these years,since your family moved to Louisville in the fifties. He never knew a stranger and always made you feel good and had such a passion for life..He will always be remembered by me and our family...Much love and comfort. He was the BEST....Sid Beckum

“ Oh Lynda, such a said time for you, Pat and Sherry, and a blessing for Mickey to be at peace. You know our families have always been close, and I have such fond memories of all you growing up in Louisville. Micky was not just Mike's friend, but mine too. May our God of comfort be with all of you at this time. Mary Ann Eskew
