“ Mom, I miss you more than words can express. I love you with all of my heart. Every day I look back at the short time we had from your diagnosis and knowing you gave me power of attorney I am praying I made all the proper decisions and just know even though I dropped out of nursing school at the time I would not change a thing. I love being your sole care provider although it basically killed me wathing you cry yourself to slep in my arms. I love you and Happy Birhtday I know grandma and Bill are up there taking good care of you. :)###imported-begin###Nancy Skorude###imported-end##
