“ Dear Jill:

You may or may not remember me. I'm Scotty Rogers, and we attended school together at Emmanuel back in "the day". My mom called me and told me of your mom's passing, and it broke my heart knowing how much the two of you meant to one another, especially with your being an only child. I'm really sorry that she passed away, but from the memorial video you created, it was obvious and evident that memories were created that time will never erase.

I've often wondered whatever became of you, and was happy to hear that you'd married and now have a wonderful family of your own. My wife and I now live in the mountains of East Tennessee and are the parents of 7 great children (5 sons, 2 daughters).

May God continue to be with you as you endure the first "year of firsts" without your mom - first birthdays, first holidays, first remembrances. Just remember that if God brings you to it, then He'll be faithful to bring you through it.

*His best to you,

“ Jill & family, sisters & brother,
I am so sorry about Eth. She, Vivian & I worked together for a long time. You know she was a good hugger & I'm glad she shared some of them with me. I hope that knowing she was loved & treasured will be a comfort to all of you.##imported-begin##Linda

“ Jill,

I am going to miss Ethelyn so much. In one of our last phone conversations, we talked about the fact that eventhough we didn't get to see each much, we could always just pick up where we left off. I love her so much. I was privileged to be invited to one of the "girlfriends" outings where Ethelyn made us dress up like little old ladies and have a tea party. The tea was awful and when she would turn her head, we would throw it over our shoulders. We had a great time. I love you Jill, and I hope that we can stay close. I feel that by doing so, it will keep me close to Ethelyn. You are certainly your mother's daughter. I am so grateful that I got to see all of you during the Christmas Holidays. Marsha##imported-begin##Marsha

“ JILL, I CAN'T STOP THINKING HOW MUCH YOUR MOTHER LOVED YOU AND YOUR FAMILY. (WE HAD SO MUCH LEFT TO DO, GO TO BRANSON NEXT SUMMER, ABBEYVILLE, SHE HAD A COUPLE OF EATING PLACES, WE LOVED TO EAT).

I HAVE THE PICTURE (8x10) OF YOUR MON & DAD AT A FAMILY GATHERING-HIS ARM AROUND HER AND THEY WERE BOTH LAUGHING. SHE GAVE ME A COPY NOT LONG AGO. I LOOKED AT IT FRI MORNING AND THEY WERE SO HAPPY. I WILL MISS HER SO MUCH, BUT JACK IS HAPPY. SHE MISSED HIM A LOT. I HOPE YOUR RECOVERY WILL NOT BE TOO BAD. LOVE YOUR FAMILY AND KEEP THEM CLOSE.

LET'S TRY TO KEEP IN TOUCH.

LOVE TO EFF'S FAMILY

“ Jill,
When I first met your mom back in 1959, she became my friend. She always gave me a big hug and kiss and told me how much she loved me. Nothing fake about you mom. Eff was truly one of my best friends, as well as Jack. I'll always remember the phone calls and stopping in Augusta and eating at the Cracker Barrell with Eff and Jack and then with just Eff.
I'll always cherish the fond memories that I'll always have about the good times we've shared through the years. Know that I love you, but know that God loves you more and will help you get through any obstacles that you may face. Put you Hope and trust in Him.
Love You

“ My heartfelt sympathies go out to the family of Ethelyn. She was truly a beautiful person. I lived across the street from her and Jack many years ago. When I married she made my bridesmaids floral bouquets. She was very talented. We kept in touch over the years seeing each other regularly at yard sales. I visited with her only a few months ago and we had a nice time together. She will truly be missed. I look forward to seeing her again in the resurrection that Jesus promised in the Bible. “ I worked with Ethelyn at ACMI, as it was known then. Always one for a smile, a funny story where you'd laugh so hard you'd cry, and a hug, Ethelyn was one of the most genuine people I've ever known. She truly spread joy to anyone who knew her. Jill, I am so sorry for your loss. God bless you and your family.

“ Jill, John an I were so sorry to hear of Eff's death. She was so sad when we last saw her that it broke our hearts. It had us both in tears. We prayed for her that day. We felt blessed that she put Bud and Saddie with us. She told us how much they ment to her and Jack and how he love his dogs.
Eff has always held a special place in Johns heart. He loved her like she was his own sister and she will be missed dearly. He was so glad that she stayed in touch with him after we were married. I felt bless to have been able to meet her. I saw all of the wounderful things John had talked so kindly of her about. Out thoughts, prayers and love will be with the family. Anytime you need Uncle John just give him a call.

“ Time seems to stand still in our memories. The faces of our classmates endure time as youthful and energetic. The memory of them is born of that time years ago. Ethelyn was a classmate of both my wife and I and we recall her with fond memories. Each time we attended a class reunion Ethelyn was sure to deliver one of her well known Hugs and greeting. We cannot think of a better way to honor our classmate than to remember her as the young woman she was in school and how she continued to be that same warm, caring and genuine person later in her life. In the days to come it is our prayer that the family, friends and classmates cherish those hugs and memories and celebrate Ethelyn's life and her caring ways.##imported-begin##Dr. Thomas Peavy & Rita Long Peavy##imported-end##

“ There are not words to express how Ethelyn will be missed by Jack's side of the family. We loved her so much and she loved us.... but she didn't just tell you, she showed you, every single time you were around her. She didn't give casual hugs, she H-U-G-G-E-D you and she patted you and told you she loved you and how glad she was to see you....that was Eff! When you visited her she didn't serve you just a bowl of ice cream, you had to have a parfait glass, ice cream, strawberries, whipped cream, nuts and a cherry on top....that was Eff! She made you feel like you were the most important person in the whole world....that was Eff! She was a wonderful person who will be sadly missed by a lot of people, especially me. Rest in peace, Eff...I love you!##imported-begin##Bonnie Harrison Ford##imported-end##

I am truly sorry for your loss. I have very fond memories of time spent with your family and your mother always had special touches to show how much she cared. I pray that you will find comfort in our Lord; I know I would have not made it through the loss of my own mother without Him. I will keep you and your family lifted up in prayer.
