“ Dear Vickie,

I read this in a poem along time ago. It is still true today.

On sad gloomy day, a group of people on shore are watching a ship sail out of sight. As they lose sight of the ship they sadly cry "There she goes"

On a distant shore the sun is shining as another group of people are waiting and watching. As they see the ship appear in sight, they cry with joy "HERE SHE COMES."

We know that Miss Evie is on that other shore. Sun shining, flowers blooming and birds singing. I wouldn't be surprised at all to see a quilting frame set up with her name on it.

All our love to you and your family.

“ Mrs. Evie was a very special lady. We are all blessed in that we had the honor of knowing her. She was the kind of woman that could brighten a day with a simple smile or laugh. I remember that at family get-togethers, it was always the first announcement after you arrived... Mrs. Evie made a cake! And you had better hurry to get a piece. Because it was going to be great. And it would be gone if you didn't hurry. She was a wonderful person and we will all miss her dearly. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of her loved ones during this time of sadness.
