We had slot of good times back in the day .. riding horses like Chamanche and old mule Charlie with no saddle ... I'd be in front on Charlie u behind on Chamanche spitting out plum seeds at that old mule to make him go ...our summer job digging bait ... and coming home to your new chag carpet that looked like worms we had been digging all day ... staying up late to cook for Trip and Robert when they came home from a date ... which I thought I was in love with Robert lol... e was so handsome ... I never had big brothers so I thought it was jus wonderful to wait on yours ... walking all down the road to Sylvia's house r up to Gloria's ... the corner store ... listing to that nut CW at the grill iv not seen Flo in so long ... I pray she came to know Jesus and lives in heaven with Him now ... healthy like she was in the 60s ... I 🙏 to see u there ❤️!?

“ I have not seen Flo in years. We had a lot of laughs in the 70s at Hawkins Grill washing dishes. She took me for a wild night at DQ when I was 10 and she would have been 20. She never fussed at me when I begged her to saddle up one of her horses. Always laughing. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Family,

I hate to hear this. I remember Flo fondly especially when she and Dean were married. Tasha you were young then and spent time at our house hanging out with Kay. She was always so pretty to me. My deepest sympathy, thoughts, and prayers for your families. With love, Tracey
