“ Mr Floyd was a loyal customer for many years. He went out of his way to purchase things from us that he could possibly buy from the big chain stores a little cheaper, but he was a friend. Lately I've become a manager at the local GOLDEN CORRAL restaurant and Mr Floyd, Judy, and her mother would dine with us almost daily. He always acted gruff as if he was unsatisfied with something but that was just his little acting job. He was just a teddy bear. I knew he was sick but you're never prepared when it happens. I sorry I didn't know in time to respond sooner. He was my friend and I will miss him.##imported-begin##Randy Newton##imported-end##

“ Daddy-

I love you so much, what am I suppose to do without you? (I asked you to leave me instructions) That's ok tough. I know you were busy.

I promise from now on I'll watch my mouth (like you said the other day) and I'll try my best to keep us all safe and watch out for everybody like you would want me to do.

And don't worry about anything, (I'm on it) I WILL find him and make sure he's alright. No matter what I have to do and no matter how long it takes I won't stop until I do. (he loves you too).

I've always been so proud of you, you couldn't have been a better father. I have so many happy memories.

It's so hard to let you go - it's killing me . . .

Like I've always said-

MY DADDY HUNG THE MOON!

“ I met Floyd at my store,I got to know him by talking with him about Booboo his cat, he loved Booboo! May you rest in peace Floyd and you will be missed! I always thought you was a nice man! I'll miss seeing you every day! Floyd use to come by my store and buy his wife and his cat fish and a chicken breast. Him and his wife was nice enough to give me a job cleaning for them. To the family of Floyd: I'm sorry for your loss, but he is in a better place, his memory will live on, and Judy please let me know if there is anything I can do for you! I'm here for you!###imported-begin##Holli Tollison##imported-end##
