“ Mr. Floyd Gettis. How precious he was to our family! I can picture him now driving up in that red pickup; sitting at the table drinking coffee with Daddy and Mama; headed over to the Avant place with Daddy; him and Daddy coming back from somewhere with that Sunday paper; working on some old piece of equipment to get just a few more miles out of it. Did you know that he stopped by all our houses every Sunday to pick up the trash and take it to the dumpster? What a friend he was to Daddy and Mama and to each of us! Our community has truly suffered a loss! Our prayers are with each of you. Love to all.

*I am so sorry for your loss my thoughts prayers and Love are with you during this difficult time. Though it has been a few years since I had seen Mr Gettis I still have a lot of cherished memories of the time I spent with the family. He would always tell me "Eddie if your not at home you should be" and " Eddie we will split it 50/50". Mr Floyd was and will always be one of my Heros.
Love you all
