*Buddy and I appreciated seeing these pictures. One of the best of just the two of them is the next to the last photo. Thanks very much for sharing. What a beautiful, loving and encouraging couple.

“ Frank’s hospitality, enthusiasm for life and mild manner will not be forgotten. I remember his awe at viewing the wildlife we saw on a guided boat tour of Lake Kissimmee. His teaching ability, that he passed on to his children and grandchildren, helped me build my faith. Partly due to that teaching ability, I believe the best is yet to come.

My sympathies are with the entire family.

“ I was heartbroken when I found out about the passing of our dear brother. I will never forget the love and warmth he always displayed to the brothers. I send my heartfelt love to his family. I had the privilege of being in the Eatonton Spanish Congregation with Brother Gigliotti and his wife for a brief time.
