“ Dear Aunt Trudie, Sandy, Stephanie, Gary, Jr. and all of your families, Each of you are wrapped with the arms of my heart right now. Uncle Gary was always very kind to me my entire life and to my husband, Ed, once I brought him into the family over 40 years ago. It is interesting to me that in the year of 2020 God chose to call home the oldest Lewis brother (Jim) and the youngest Lewis brother (Gary). That in itself is very special to me. I can see in my mind the picture of my dad, Jim, and Uncle Sam and Uncle Gary and cousin Omar and cousin Spencer standing shoulder to shoulder in their hunting clothes and rifles in hand grinning from ear to ear! They are on the best hunting ground ever!

With sincere sympathy and love, Cathy Lewis Ward

“ Paw paw was who I, aspired to be when growing up . He taught me how to survive and live off of the land, along with instilling values in myself that one day I hope to teach my son. I would love to write a book about how he inspired and lead his grand children through hard times . Often times when I was on patrol I'd call him just to talk about things I had seen while on shift . He would always be there to guide me and counsel my growth. I chose to follow in his footsteps and kept it to myself . Joining the military then becoming a cop was my way of showing him how much he influenced me . I'm going to miss you paw paw , One day you and I can walk through the woods again together and talk about anything you want . I love you
