“ Dear Harry, Julie, and Scott,
We were sad to hear of Glenda Fay's passing. We both knew her in Jesup from childhood through high school and then later in Milledgeville. She was one of the sweetest people anyone could know. Our condolences to you all.

“ I always enjoyed being around Glenda. There were countless hours spent supporting our children in school activities. Scott and Julie, your Mom was so proud of you when you were at BHS. She continued to be even more proud of you as adults. Whenever we would cross paths later, we would share news of our kids and grandkids. I enjoyed having her work at The Marlor House.

“ My last text from Glenda Faye was July 11th and she told me she was "maybe a teaspoon better" and she "appreciates those of you thinking of me and praying for me". I wish the teaspoon had been enough. She was always sharing pictures and memories with me. She will be missed.
