

Glenn R. Brewer

November 24, 1946 - July 28, 2007

HEADLINE Glenn Royce Brewer

DATELINE: Gordon

Services for Glenn Royce Brewer

Will Be (Day/Date) Monday, July 30, 2007 @ 11 AM

Place: Gordon First Baptist Church

Clergy: Rev. Maxie Threatt

Interment: Brewer Family Cemetery

VISITATION: Sunday, July 30 from 4 to 6 PM in White Columns Funeral Home

Background: Glenn Brewer, 60, of Gordon and formerly of Eatonton, Atlanta, and Macon, died on July 28, 2007 after a courageous battle with cancer. Son of the late Kebbie.E. Brewer and Dot (Renfroe) Brewer of Gordon (formerly of Macon and Lumber City). Glenn grew up in Macon and after serving in the Air Force and in Vietnam, he went to work with Southern Bell in Macon and Atlanta. After retiring in 1991, he went on to work with companies supporting Southern Bell and Georgia Power. Glenn was an avid skier, competitive golfer, and an energetic fisherman and hunter. Glenn and his brother Don took his last major fishing trip to Key West in December 2005 before Glenn started his chemotherapy. They reportedly partied a little as well. In December last year, he made his final ski trip to Colorado. A real animal lover, his dogs will be happy to see Glenn again, especially King, his beloved Golden Retriever, and Girly, who showed up when Glenn needed her. Glenn was a wonderful son, a great big brother, and a fun-loving man, and he will be sorely missed by his family and many friends. He lived life large.

“ Dearest Don and family,
Please accept my deepest sympathies on the loss of Glenn. I only had the privilege of meeting Glenn once, but I immediately liked him. Glenn looked a lot like his Daddy and had the same carefree, fun-loving personality as Don. May all of you find comfort in knowing that Glenn suffers no more and that he is in God's loving hands.##imported-begin##Lisa Massengale and Nicholas##imported-end##

“ Glenn was my big brother. Always quiet and strong and there. He was my favorite date as we spent various vacations both at my homes in Florida and Hawaii and on skiing trips out west with his wild and crazy friends. I've met even more of his friends who have come to support us and honor Glenn during his illness and after his death. It seems he made a mark on the lives of everybody he met. I'm definitely not suprised. He was the family linchpin after our daddy died--calm in the most violent storm. I'll miss him forever, as will the rest of my family and all his many friends.##imported-begin##Kay Brewer##imported-end##

“ So sorry about Glenn's death. We are at our place in NC and Gwen called Sunday to tell us but Harry misunderstood and thought she said Don but we found the obituary in the Macon Paper that it was Glenn and we knew he had a bout with cancer but thought he was doing well. Just want you to know we love you and wish we could visit with you and your family--at least often enough to know more about all of you. We will pray for god's great love to give you strength in days ahead.

“ Beth,

I just found out about Glenn today and wanted to let you know how sorry I was to hear the news. We had been out of town, and I had not had a chance to read the backlog of papers, but my mom called me today to tell me. You and the rest of the family are in my prayers. I know that Glenn is in the Lord's house now and has been relieved of all of his pain and suffering.

“ Mama Dot, Kay, Debbi, Beth and Don,

How I hoped he would make it. Glenn was one of the strongest men I've ever known, in both mind and spirit. He's at rest now, but for all of you, the loving family he left behind, the void will never be filled. Very soon, his memory will bring you smiles and laughter instead of heartache, and he would like that. Wish Georgia and Colorado were not so far apart.

Love you all,

“ Dearest Debbie:
I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your "big brother". I never realized you had another brother other than Don. It sounds as if Glenn was "quite a sport" and I know you'll miss him immensely. We lost Lisa back in 2003 - she was only 47. I never knew what losing a sibling could mean. Hold onto and cherish all the wonderful memories and we must keep them alive within our hearts forever. You and your family will be in our thoughts, hearts and prayers during this difficult time. Fondly--Tasha Brooks Brookins##imported-begin##Tasha Brooks Brookins##imported-end##

“ To the family of Glenn Brewer:

Glenn was a wonderful friend and truly an amazing person. So many have expressed to me the sorrow over Glenn's death and how much they enjoyed being in his presence. I never heard a negative comment uttered about him. He lived life to the fullest and wasn't leaving without one hell of a fight. I'll forever miss his laugh and wish I could see his smile but I'll never forget the many memories and fun experiences we shared together.##imported-begin##Alan Haley##imported-end##

“ I want the world to know what a great big brother Glenn was to me, Don, Beth and Kay and what a thoughtful and caring son he was to our mother. He was kind, thoughtful, loving, generous, fun and loved life. Why he had to die so young we will never know but we will always regret his passing and he will be missed by this family and all who knew him more than I can say. If you did not get the opportunity to know him, you missed having a great friend. It was a privilege to have him for a brother and to care for him in the last few months of his life. Glenn, we love you and miss you already. See you...##imported-begin##Debbie##imported-end##

“ I have been calling him Glenn for a couple of years, but for the first thirty five years he was always called "Red". I did not even know his real name for the first year after I met him. We were roommates for several years and we soon were no longer friends, but brothers. Thanks for watching my back, brother.

“ It seems like yesterday that Glenn was coming through the apartment door in Brunswick saying, "Honey, I'm home!" Dennis and I would laugh and joke with him and ask him was he talking to Dennis or me. From then on the first one home would shout out that familiar, "Honey, I'm Home! My dear sweet friend is in heaven now and I am sure he is telling God, "I am home." Dennis and I will miss you and your cooking. Glenn was a fantastic cook. Miss Dot taught him well. I wish I had some of his shrimp etouffee or beef stroganoff. Hope everyone that loves you finds strength in the wonderful memories you gave to all of us.
